(XXVIth YEAR.) THE (No. 1348.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1771.

TURIN, April 13.

ON the 13th Inſtant, about Ten o'Clock in the Morning, the Court being in Gala, the Ambaſſador from France had a ſolemn Audience of the King and the Royal Family, in which he made a Demand of the Princeſs Maria-Joſepha Louiſa, who, after having the Tokens of the Conſent of the Ducheſs her Mother, was preſented by the Ambaſſador with a Letter from the Count de Provence, together with the Picture of his Royal Highneſs.

PARIS, April 22. Laſt Thurſday, in the Night, the Muſqueteers carried Letters de Cachet to the Twelve Members of the Great Council, who had reſigned, ordering them to return to the Palace, and reſume their Functions. Some of them would not go there, and others returned only to renew their Proteſts. Mr. Lambert, the Dean, having his Letter de Cachet in his Hand, declared that the King might command his Fortune, his Perſon, and his Life, but that he could not diſpoſe of his Honour or his Conſcience.

As ſoon as the Parliament of Rouen was informed of the Formation of a new Parliament of Paris, it paſſed an Arret couched in ſtronger Terms than any that has yet appeared; and at the Concluſion it forbids all Officers belonging to the Parliament of Rouen to acknowledge any Acts of this nominal Parliament of Paris.

HAGUE, April 26. The laſt Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Duke of Harcourt has refuſed to take the Command of the Troops in Normandy. They write from the Capital of that Province, that on the 13th Inſt. the Day after the laſt Bed of Juſtice, the Parliament aſſembled and iſſued an Arret, which declares the Members of the new Parliament Intruders, Uſurpers of the Effects of the People, Enemies of the State, and Violaters of their Oaths, and ſtrictly forbids the Acknowledgment or Execution of any of their Arrets: This Proceeding will probably coſt the Parliament of Rouen very dear.—Eleven Members of the Great Council, who compoſed Part of the Great Chamber, and the Tournelle of the new Parliament, have reſigned their Places. Two of them, viz. Meſſrs. Michael de Montſepat and de Bonnaire, being Magiſtrates of great Integrity and Capacity, are much regreted. It is ſtill uncertain what Part the Chatelet will take in the preſent Conjuncture.

LONDON,

April 30. Yeſterday Sir George Rodney ſet out from his Houſe in Welbeck-Street for Portſmouth, to take upon him the Command of the Squadron deſtined for Jamaica.

So greatly have Adminiſtration increaſed their Power of late, by an enormous Number of Dependants, that above 700,000l. per Annum goes to the ſeveral Officers concerned in collecting the various Taxes.

The Army have ſhewed that they retain the ſame Spirit of Liberty, which Engliſh Armies have always ſhewn:—They have had the Judgment, in the firſt Inſtance, to nip the Attempt of introducing foreign Troops into the Engliſh Dominions, and have dared to vote, in ſpite of Influence, againſt the Bill for the more effectually raiſing a military Force for the Protection of the Settlements and Poſſeſſions of the Eaſt-India Company, and threw it out, to the great Joy of all thinking Men, who are Friends to his Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover, and the Liberties of England.

May 1. Yeſterday the Lords North and Rochford, had a long Conference with his Majeſty, at the Queen's Palace.

Yeſterday Morning the Earl of Hillſborough, as Secretary of State for the Colonies, had a grand Levee of Colony Governors, Agents, and American Merchants, at his Houſe in Hanover-Square.

The ſame Morning Lord Sandwich had a grand and numerous Levee of Admirals, and other naval Officers, at his Houſe at the Admiralty.

The Sheriff of Middleſex, when he enters into his Office, ſwears, that he will truly return all the King's Writs. It is probable Mr. Wilkes did not know the Nature of the Sheriff's Oath, when he talked of refuſing to make a Return in Caſe of Mr. Luttrell's Seat being vacated as Member for the County of Middleſex. Beſides, if it were poſſible to get over the Perjury, by the Statutes of 8 Henry VI. c. 7. and 23 Henry VI. c. 14. a Sheriff by ſuch refuſal would incur the Penalty of Two Hundred Pounds; One to the King, and the other to him who ſhall ſue, and will likewiſe ſuffer a Year's Impriſonment.

The Houſe of Commons will certainly finiſh their Buſineſs To-morrow, when they will adjourn till Monday or Tueſday, as it is thought impoſſible for the Upper-Houſe to finiſh the whole of their Buſineſs till To-morrow Se'nnight, ſo that the Prorogation is now fixed for Thurſday Se'nnight.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, March 23.

"A very extraordinary Event has happened lately here in regard to Commerce. Some Days ago French Cloths were refuſed Diſpatch in the Cuſtom-Houſe, and ſtopt; and ſince then a general Order has been ſent to that Tribunal, to ſtop all Goods of French Manufacture, which are either compoſed of Wool, or have any Mixture of that Material in them; even their Druggets are comprehended. You may eaſily conceive what an Uproar this has occaſioned among the French Merchants; they have applied to their Envoy here, who has ſent home their Caſe, and written to his Court for Inſtructions."

May 2. Sunday Evening an Expreſs arrived over Land from Bombay, by which we learn, that Hyder Aly has ſued for Peace with the Morattoes; that he has alſo deſired the Aſſiſtance of the Engliſh on this Occaſion; and that upon the whole, it was generally imagined this Affair would, in a very ſhort Time, be amicably adjuſted. This little Check upon the Aſiatick Chiefs has thrown great Weight into the Scale of the Engliſh, as it tends to convince Hyder Aly and the Aſiaticks, of the abſolute Neceſſity they are under of always keeping well with the Engliſh. And ſome Perſons go ſo far as to hint, that this little Diſcord between the Morattoes and Hyder Aly was, under Hand, fomented even by the Engliſh themſelves; more eſpecially, as the Expreſs remarks, that all was quiet and tranquil when he left Bombay. By the ſame Channel we are informed, that Col. Coote is on his Paſſage home, and that his Arrival may be expected in the Courſe of this Month.

On Tueſday, in the Upper Houſe, the Duke of Richmond made a Motion to reſcind the Reſolution which the Houſe came to laſt Year, that the Middleſex Election was final and concluſive. After a long Debate, which laſted till Half paſt Seven o'Clock, there appeared for the Motion Thirty-five, againſt it Fifty-five.——The Speakers in Support of the Motion were, the Dukes of Richmond and Manchester, the Marquis of Rockingham, the Lords Chatham, Shelburne, Camden, Lyttleton, &c.

Yeſterday the principal Inhabitants of the Ward of Aldgate waited on the Lord Mayor in the Tower, and preſented his Lordſhip with an Addreſs, expreſſing their Approbation of his late Conduct.

This Day the Common Councilmen, and many of the principal Inhabitants of Bread-Street Ward, preſented an Addreſs to the Lord Mayor and Mr. Alderman Oliver.

On the Duke of Richmond's Motion Eight or Ten of the Miniſtry divided with the Minority.

It is ſaid that the honourable Charles James Fox will ſoon be promoted to a very important Office in Adminiſtration.

A Patent is preparing for creating Sir Jeffery Amherſt a Peer.

It is reported with great Confidence, that a very extraordinary Preferment was lately offered to Sergeant Glynn, which he nobly refuſed, though it was tendered to him at the Inſtance of a great Perſonage.

It is a Miſtake that Mr. Wilkes at Mile-End talked of making no Return to the Writ. He mentioned not obeying it ſo far as to call the County together, when there was no legal Vacancy, and returning the Writ with the ſpecial Matter endorſed on the Back.

The State of the Corn Trade, for allowing the Exportation of Grain, &c. from America, Duty free, is dropt.

May 4. It is ſaid that Sir Edward Hawke will be created a Peer at the ſame Time that Sir Jeffery Amherſt is.

The Bill to prevent divorced Perſons from marrying with the offending Party, we hear, is dropped.

Lord Chatham never appeared in Parliament with greater Luſtre than on Tueſday laſt. No Man queſtions the Intrepidity of his Spirit; no Man denies the wonderful Extent of his Abilities. The Dignity, Firmneſs, and Conſiſtency of his Conduct make his Character compleat.—After giving the warmeſt Support to the Duke of Richmond's Motion on Tueſday, he entered largely into the Conſideration of the melancholy State of the Country; the depraved Syſtem of Government, which had, in a very few Years, reduced us from a moſt flouriſhing to a moſt miſerable Condition. He went through the whole Proceedings of the Houſe of Commons in the late Buſineſs of the Printers, and arraigned every Part of it in the ſtrongeſt Terms. He warmly defended the Magiſtrates in the conſcientious Diſcharge of their Duty;—that the Houſe, in committing them to Priſon without hearing their Defence upon the Point of Privilege, had been guilty of a groſs and palpable Act of Tyranny;—that they had heard the proſtituted Electors of Shoreham in Defence of an Agreement to ſell a Borough by Auction, and had refuſed to hear the Lord Mayor of London, in Defence of the Laws of England; that their expunging, by mere Force, the Entry of the Recognizance, was the act of a Mob, not of a Parliament; but that their daring to aſſume a Power of ſtopping all Proſecutions by their Vote, ſtruck at once at the whole Syſtem of the Laws;—that it was ſolely to the Meaſures of Government, equally violent and abſurd, that Mr. Wilkes owed all his Importance;—that the King's Miniſters, ſupported by the ſlaviſh Concurrence of the Houſe of Commons, had at once made him a Perſon of the greateſt Conſequence in the Kingdom;—that they in Effect had made him an Alderman of London, and Repreſentative of the County of Middleſex; and now it ſeems they intend to make him Sheriff, and, in due Courſe, Lord Mayor of London;—that the Proceedings of the Houſe of Commons, in Regard to this Gentleman, made the very Name of Parliament ridiculous;—that after repeated Reſolutions, by which they had made him amenable to their Juriſdiction, they had ſhamefully given up the Point at laſt, and, in the Face of the World, acknowledged him to be their Lord and Maſter.—That there remained but one poſſible Remedy for the Diſorders, with which the Government of this Country was univerſally infected:—That to ſave the Name and Inſtitution of Parliaments from Contempt, the Houſe of Commons muſt be diſſolved. This he hoped might reſtore good Government on one Side—good Humour and Tranquillity on the other; yet that this was rather a Hope in him than any ſanguine Expectation. He feared that it might prove only a temporary and partial Remedy; that to reſiſt the enormous Influence of the Crown, ſome ſtronger Barriers muſt be erected in Defence of the Conſtitution. That formerly the Inconveniencies of ſhortening the Duration of Parliament has had great Weight with him; but that now it was no longer a Queſtion of Convenience;—the Summa Rerum is at Stake;—your whole Conſtitution is giving way;—and therefore, with the moſt deliberate and ſolemn Conviction to his Underſtanding, he now declared himſelf a Convert to Triennial Parliaments.—His Lordſhip concluded with deſiring a Call of the Houſe for next Day, and declared his Intention to move an Addreſs for the Diſſolution of the preſent Parliament. Accordingly on Wedneſday his Lordſhip made the Motion, but it was overruled, 72 againſt 23.

The other Day the French King found, under a Plate that was ſet for him at Dinner, a Scroll of a Paper, on which was written, "the firſt Damien miſſed his Aim, the Second will be ſure."

The Diſputes between the French King and his Parliament, it is thought, will be carried to much greater Lengths than were at firſt imagined, as that Monarch is not ſatisfied with the Diſſolution and Baniſhment of the Members, but is determined to compel them to reſume their nominal Dignity; and, however Repugnant to their Inclinations or Conſciences, to oblige them to ſubſcribe to the Meaſures he ſhall chooſe to purſue. Deſpotiſm, thank Heaven, a Britiſh Conſtitution, as yet, knows nothing of!

It is ſuppoſed that the Day the Lord Mayor and Mr. Oliver quit the Tower there will be more publick Rejoicings in this City than ever were known on any Occaſion. It is much wiſhed it was alſo a Day of Reconciliation among the Patriots.

Some Letters from Madrid mention that Two Chiefs of the Spaniſh Miniſtry are at preſent in Diſgrace at Court, on Account of the Part they took in a late Convention.

It is ſaid the following Motion was made on Wedneſday laſt, by the Earl of Chatham, in the Upper Houſe: "That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, moſt dutifully and earneſtly beſeeching his Majeſty, that under the late Violations of the Rights of the Electors of Great-Britain in the Election for Middleſex, ſtill unredreſſed, and in the preſent Conflict which has ſo unhappily ariſen between the Claims of Privilege of the Houſe of Commons on one Side, and thoſe of the Magiſtracy on the other, his Majeſty will, in his paternal Wiſdom, deign to open the Way to compoſe this alarming Warfare; and that, in order to prevent the ſaid Houſe and the Nation from being involved in intemperate Diſcuſſions of undefined Powers, which in the Extreme may endanger the Conſtitution, and tend to ſhake the Tranquillity of the Kingdom, his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to recur to the recent Senſe of his People, by diſſolving, after the End of this Seſſion, the preſent Parliament, and calling, with all convenient Diſpatch, a new Parliament; Twenty-three for it, Seventy-two againſt it.

Yeſterday a Court of Common-Council was held at Guildhall, when it was moved, that this Court, with the City Officers, be deſired to attend the Right Hon. Braſs Croſby, Lord Mayor, and Mr. Alderman Oliver, in their Gowns, in Proceſſion from the Tower to the Manſion-Houſe, on their Enlargement from their preſent Confinement, and on being put was carried unanimouſly.

We are aſſured, that upon the Day the Parliament is prorogued, the whole City of London will meet upon Tower-Hill and Places adjoining, in Carriages and on Foot, to attend the Lord Mayor and Mr. Alderman Oliver to the Manſion-Houſe. All the Bells in the City of London and Suburbs will ring the whole Day, and the Illuminations are expected to be more general than ever were known upon any other Occaſion.

Mr. Alderman Wilkes, who ſtood foremoſt for the Diſcharge of the Printers, will attend the Lord Mayor to the Manſion-Houſe.

Yeſterday ſome farther Complaints from the Britiſh Merchants at Liſbon and Oporto were received by the Liſbon Mail.

By the laſt Accounts from Breſt, Twelve Ships of the Line had juſt been laid up there, and their Crews diſcharged.

Some private Letters from Lisbon mention a very spirited Remonstrance, in the Name of the French King, having just arrived at Court, couched in Terms extremely humiliating to the Pride of the Portuguese Premier.

Both Houses of Parliament will be prorogued on Thursday next, when the Lord Mayor and Mr. Alderman Oliver will leave the Tower, and be escorted by the most respectable Bodies in the City to the Mansion-House.

It is now conjectured from some Advices lately received, that the Aurora Frigate, by Accident, took Fire at Sea a few Days after she sailed from the Cape of Good-Hope.

WESTMINSTER-HALL INTELLIGENCE.

Court of Exchequer. After Sergeant Glynn had finished his Speech, for the Discharge of Mr. Alderman Oliver, on Tuesday last in this Court, every Body present, except Four, was so convinced, by Strength of Argument, and the irresistible Force of the learned Sergeant's Reasoning, as well as animated by the Love of Liberty which more than ordinary inspired the Sergeant on that Occasion, that Nobody doubted the determination in Favour of fixed Laws against undefined Privilege. The Two learned Counsel, who spoke after Sergeant Glynn followed his Example. The Arguments took Three Hours, upon this most important Question. It was decided by the Court in almost as many Minutes, that Mr. Oliver should be remanded to the Tower.

But, as usual, as if the Agents of the Crown were Friends to Liberty, several Flaws were discovered in the Return, which might have been fatal to the Carlton-House Junto, if Mr. Oliver, as if he had a Mind to be at cross Purposes too, had not stood up for arbitrary Power: When the Lieutenant of the Tower had, by his Blunders in the Return, left open a Window for the honourable Prisoner to escape, he preferred Captivity to Liberty on such Terms; and while the Crown Lawyers were confounded at the disgraceful Blunders, and saw, as it were, their Prisoner ready to slip through their Fingers, Mr. Oliver rose up and said, "If your Lordships will not release me on the general and publick Ground, I do not wish to take Advantage of these Mistakes."——What could Regulus have done more?

BOSTON, June 17.

We are assured that the House of Representatives on Friday last, ordered a solemn Protest to be entered on their Journal, against all such Doctrines, Principles and Practices, as tended to establish ministerial Instructions as Laws within this Province; and particularly against the present Manner of exercising the Prerogative, in convening and holding the General Assembly at Harvard-College, in Cambridge, merely by Instructions, as an intolerable Grievance, which ought speedily to be redressed.

NEW-YORK, June 24.

Captain Boyd, in Twenty-eight Days from the Bay of Honduras, the 28th of May, in Lat. 21. Long. 77. spoke with a Ship and Two Snows, from Cadiz for the Havannah, with a Number of Sailors on board, to Man several 80 Gun Ships that were building there; and Two Days after he also spoke with a Brig from some Port in Spain, for the Havannah likewise, with Seamen for the like Purpose; the Captain of which Vessel acquainted Captain Boyd, that Five others sailed in Company with him, all bound for the Havannah.

WILLIAMSBURG, June 27.

We learn from North-Carolina that inconceivable Damage hath been done by the late Inundation or Fresh, which rose higher in many Places, by Nine Feet, than ever was known in the Memory of Man. The low Lands, which have been cultivated, are in a great Measure rendered useless to the Proprietors, by the Soil being overspread with a vast Quantity of Sand from the Washings of the Banks of the Rivers, and the Houses and Stocks of the poor Inhabitants totally swept away. An innumerable Quantity of Fence Rails, Walnut, and all Kind of Timber Trees, were drifted into the Bay of Edenton, and all along both Sides of Albemarle Sound clear to Roanoake Island; and every Thing seems to wear the Face of Desolation and Calamity. It is not possible, as yet, to ascertain any particular Damages which Individuals may have received; but it seems more than probable, that from the advanced Season of the Year, and the Scarcity of Timber in many Parts of the low Lands for Fencing, no Crops will be made in them; from whence every Species of Distress must be supposed to arise to the poor Inhabitants, already bereft of their Habitations and Stocks.

I was informed some Time ago that he had agreed with a New-England Captain to carry him off the Province, I am therefore apprehensive that he may endeavour to get off by Water or otherwise. As the Situation at the Mill is very convenient for a Store, having Water Carriage to the Mill Tail, and a much frequented publick Road leading by it, in a good Wheat and Corn Country, any Person inclining to farm the Mill, that would keep a Store of wet and dry Goods, I think would find his Advantage in purchasing one or other of said Vessels, for which any reasonable Time would be given for Payment, on paying Interest and giving Security, if required.
